South-Carolina GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, MAY 30, 1771.

CHARLES-TOWN, MAY 30.

LAST Monday arrived here from London, in the Heart-of-Oak, Captain Gunn, the Honourable Robert-Knox Gordon, Esq; lately appointed Chief Justice of this Province, Edward Savage, Esq; one of the new appointed Assistant Judges, Thomas Phepoe, Esq; Counsellor at Law, William Haven, Esq; Controller of the Customs for the Port of Savannah in Georgia, and Mr. Samuel Gordon, Merchant.

Letters by this Ship advise, that His Excellency the Right Honourable Lord Charles-Greville Montagu, our Governor, &c. was to embark about the 20th of April, in the Æolus Frigate, for New-York, on his Way to this Government. And, that a Mr. Corsland (a Counsellor at Law) is appointed another of our Assistant Judges.

One of the Articles agreed to, nem. con. by the Inhabitants of this Province, assembled at Liberty-Tree, on Thursday the 13th of December last, was,

"That the Article of TEA, should not be imported into this "Province by any Subscriber; nor purchased from any "Person, while the present Duty, to be collected in America, "remained thereon: And that no Goods whatever, from "Great-Britain, whereon a Duty now is, or hereafter "shall be imposed, by any Act of Parliament, and to be col-"lected in the Colonies, for the Purpose of raising a Revenue "in America, shall be imported, or purchased, by any Sub-"scriber to the General Resolutions."

Yet we find, that, some Merchants in Great-Britain, in Contradiction to the aforesaid Agreement, and also contrary to positive Orders, have, in some of the late Vessels, shipped several Chests of TEA to their Correspondents here.——What is to be done with it, will probably be determined in a few Days, either at a Meeting of the Merchants, or a General One of the People.—Till such a Meeting has taken Place, we shall forbear to say more of the Matter.

A General Importation of British Goods has taken Place here, only within a Fortnight past; and the Stores that were before quite empty, are now amply filling.

We have lately received a Variety of Accounts of the Movements and Operations of the Army headed by his Excellency Governor Tryon, of North-Carolina, and the deluded Men who have risen in Arms to oppose his Progress.—Among others, one was, "That the Regulators (as they call themselves) upon "hearing that Col. Waddell was in March with 800 Men, to "join the Governor, who had 1200, suddenly quitted their "Planting, and assembled to the Amount of 1500, with In-"tent to surround the Colonel's Corps, and prevent his Junc-"tion with the other Body; and that they so far succeeded, as "to destroy all his Ammunition and Provisions, and confine him "within certain Limits."—The last begins a Scene of Horror; and is communicated to us in a Letter dated at Wilmington the 22d Instant, in these Words: "By Letters from Crost-Creek, "this Moment received, we have Advice, that the Regulators "in the back Parts of this Province, have had an Engagement "with the Troops under his Excellency's Command. The Par-"ticulars are as follow: On Tuesday the 13th Instant, the Go-"vernor received Intelligence, by his Scouting Parties, that the "Regulators, to the Amount of 2300, were encamped at four "Miles Distance; and by some Stragglers from their Camp, who "were taken Prisoners, that their Design was, if possible, to "surround the Army under his Command, then 2000 strong." [which seems to contradict the former Account, of the Regulator's having prevented the Junction of Col. Waddel's Corps with the Governor's.] "However they first sent in a Petition, or Pro-"posal, that, if they were pardoned, they would immediately "return to their respective Homes, and submit to pay the Taxes "imposed on them, as good Subjects. The Governor's Answer, "that, unless they first surrendered their Arms, delivered up the "Men that were outlawed, and then made a proper Submission, "he could pay no Regard to their Application, being delivered to "them; on Wednesday Morning His Excellency received Ad-"vice, that they were in full March towards him; upon which "he formed his Army in Battle Order, on a large Dutch Plan-"tation, waiting to receive them. About Ten o'Clock the Re-"gulators appeared: The two Bodies stood parleying about an "Hour; but could not agree. The Governor at last ordered a "full Discharge of the Artillery upon them; a general Engage-"ment ensued, which continued about Half an Hour, when the "Regulators, having Sixty killed outright, and great Numbers "wounded, retreated on all Sides; but in such a Manner, "sculking behind Trees and Bushes with their Rifles loaded, "that it was impossible for His Excellency to pursue them. On "our Side, one Lieutenant, one Serjeant, and three Privates were "killed, and about Forty wounded; among the latter are Col. "Harris (mortally) and Mr. Cornell. Our People are daily "in Expectation of another Engagement, the Regulators en-"creasing every Moment, while the Governor scarce gets a "Man."——In some future Paper, we will endeavour to give our Readers some Account of the Rise and Progress of these unhappy Disturbances; but it will be a Work of Difficulty to come at the Truth, where Facts are so encumbered with Misrepresentation.

In the Britannia, Captain Ball, arrived Yesterday from London, among other Passengers, came Robert Hunt, Esq; Collector of the Customs at the Bahama-Islands, Dr. Bigelow, of Barbados, &c.

Last Thursday arrived here, in the Ship London, Captain Curling, the Rev. Mr. John Hinde and Family, who, we hear, is to officiate in Christ-Church Parish.

This Morning at Three o'Clock died, after a very short Illness, at Broom-Hall in Goose-Creek, leaving the whole Province to bewail his Loss (except only those who are Enemies to the Cause of Freedom)—that inestimable Member of the Community—that zealous, disinterested and unshaken Patriot—that true Friend to America and the English Constitution—that excellent Man in every social Relation—JOHN MACKENZIE, Esq; one of the Representatives of the People of this Province in the present Assembly, for the Parish of St. James, Goose-Creek.—He was born in this Province the 30th Day of March, 1738; received his Education at the University of Cambridge, in England; lived an Honour to his Country; and, we believe, no one, in his Sphere, ever died more universally or justly regretted.—We shall forbear entering on the Particulars of his Character, merely because we are sensible, that we cannot do it adequate Justice.——By his last Will, he has bequeathed the Sum of Seven Thousand Pounds, towards founding, establishing and endowing a College or University in this Province; and has left his Library (which is a very valuable one) for the Use of the Charles-Town Library Society (tho' he was not a Member) 'till such University shall be established, then to be delivered up to the College.

Imbellisque Lyræ Musa potens vetat.
Laudes egregii Cæsaris & tuas
Culpâ deterere Ingenii. HOR.

STRIKE, strike, O Muse, the melancholly String,
Whilst I MACKENZIE's Merits strive to sing;
And thou, who govern'st Pindar's Top, descend
To aid me in a Tribute to my Friend.
All social Virtues fir'd his honest Breast,
But PUBLIC Love shone brighter than the Rest;
A firmer PATRIOT never stemm'd the Flood
Of foul Oppression; in his Country's Good
He scorn'd Reproach, and Envy's feeble Blow;
To none, but to his Country's Foes, a Foe;
For Heav'n-born LIBERTY he boldly pled,
For her his Blood he would have freely shed;
The People's Freedom was his foremost Aim,
And Freedom's Sons will still revere his Name.
To form the Man, both Art and Nature join'd,
Science and Nature both adorn'd his Mind:
In CAM's instructive Walls he Learning caught,
Where ev'ry loyal Principle is taught;
There conversant in ancient classic Lore,
He catch'd the Flame which Romans had before;
There ev'ry nobler Virtue he imbib'd
What Cato did, and Cicero describ'd.
Too soon, alas! our Patriot left the Stage,
Lamenting deeply this degen'rate Age;
Foreseeing, with his penetrating Sight,
His Country's Bondage, hence he took his Flight;
The very Thought his noble Spirit broke,
His free-born Soul could not sustain the Shock.
In private Life he was excell'd by none,
In him Benevolence conspicuous shone;
Unbounded Charity, the social Glow,
The tender feeling for another's Woe,
Open Sincerity, a willing Ear
The Widow's Cry and Orphan's Wants to hear;
Friendship most pure, Politeness most refin'd,
With tender conjugal Affection join'd,
To form his perfect Character conspire;
Which Envy, though unwilling, must admire.
"A Wit's a Feather, and a Chief's a Rod,
"An HONEST MAN is the noblest Work of God."

On the 12th Instant, Mr. Thomas Bull was married to Miss Sarah Simpson.

This Day Mr. Henry Crouch was married, to Miss Sepha Watson, Niece to the late Charles Watson, Esq; Clerk of the Council in Georgia.

JOHN PARKER,
WILL DISPOSE OF,
(At private Sale)

HIS PLANTATION;

PLEASANTLY ſituated on the Head of Gooſe-Creek, ſixteen Miles from Charles-Town, ſix from the Village of Dorcheſter, and about two from a Landing. It is ſo well known as to render any pompous Deſcription or Recommendation altogether unneceſſary, farther than it is eſteemed, by competent Judges, inferior to very few Plantations in the Province. The Goodneſs of the Buildings, as well as of the Land, and its Vicinity to the Metropolis, are undoubtedly very conſiderable Advantages, and add greatly to its Value. This Tract, which joins Lands of John Ainſlie, Eſq; the Heirs of Sarah Elmes, Iſaac Godin, Alexander Fraſer, Eſqr's. Major John Moultrie, Heirs of Thomas Bulline and Mrs. Harvey (late Charles Barker's) is ſuppoſed to contain about One Thouſand Five Hundred Acres, but will be ſold for One Thouſand Three Hundred Acres, more or leſs; about 250 Acres of which is Rice Land, which generally produces from two Barrels and an Half to three Barrels per Acre (very bad Years only excepted): Full 400 Acres prime Corn Land, which, by being properly drained, would produce either Indico, Hemp, or Madder. The Neighbourhood is excelled by none, and would be a very agreeable Summer's Retreat, as well as a Place of Profit, for a Gentleman of Fortune.

ALSO,

HIS HOUSE and LOT in St. Philip's, Charles-Town, containing in Front Seventy-ſeven Feet and an Half on Old Church or Meeting-Street, and about One Hundred and Ninety-five on a Street that leads from the Governor's Bridge and Mr. Raper's, called Pinckney's Street. On this Lot there is a cool, well-finiſhed Houſe, 25 Feet by 46, built of the beſt Materials, with Kitchen, Waſh-Houſe, Stable, Coach-Houſe, &c. The Cellar to the Dwelling-Houſe is above ſeven Feet in the Clear, all paved, and the Yard and Garden ſufficiently large, on which there is Room to erect two other Buildings, which may be done to great Advantage, by any Perſons who chuſe to make the moſt of their Money in that Way. The Terms of Payment, as the Money is not wanted, will be made agreeable to the Purchaſer. For further Particulars, apply to the Proprietor.

Who will diſpoſe of ALL his SLAVES, as ſoon as his Plantation is ſold (not before) and Poſſeſſion of the Premiſes may be had the firſt Day of July next, provided the Purchaſer take the Crop now on the Land, Stock, &c. otherwiſe not before the firſt of February next. The Houſe and Lot will be given up immediately.

N. B. The above Plantation will bear dividing, ſo as to have 80 Acres of Swamp in one Tract, with at leaſt 100 Acres of good High Land, Pine Barren, &c. All the Reſt of the Tract will go with the Buildings, if the Purchaſer chooſes it; or if more agreeable, a ſmall Tract only of about 140 Acres, ſeparate from the other, and purchaſed ſome Years ſince, will be taken off, and a proper Deduction made from the Price of the Whole.

ALSO FOR SALE,

A LANDAU, with Harneſs for four Horſes, not heavier than Coaches commonly are.——A light neat PHAETON, and a Pair of likely Bay CHARIOT HORSES, fourteen Hands and an Half high, which likewiſe anſwer well for the Saddle.

JOSHUA LOCKWOOD,
Informs his Friends, that he has yet on Hand,

A FEW Yards of very rich SILK, for Gentlemen's Summer Jackets and Breeches; a few very good SILK UMBRELLAS—a very neat Aſſortment of VIOLINS, from 10l. to 35l. each, allowed to be equal to any ever brought into theſe Parts—and a few Pair of neat ſmall SCALES and WEIGHTS, for weighing of Gold, &c.

HE HAS ALSO,
(LATELY ſent out to him, from LONDON)

A MEDICINE for the GOUT and RHEUMATISM, ſaid to be one of the greateſt ever yet invented. As yet, it is but little known here: But this I can ever, That one Mr. JOHN LEE, from Antigua, was ſo ill with the Gout, as to be given over for dead by every one who ſaw him, yet by this Medicine, he was enabled to walk in a few Days with his Crutches, which he had uſed for many Years; and that he ſcarce doubted, could he have got more of it before he left the Province, he would have been perfectly cured.

I hope the Public will not imagine, that I am to be benefited by commending it, for, on the Word of an honeſt Man, I do not gain a Farthing by the Sale.—The Price is, ONE GUINEA and an HALF the Ounce Phial, which is for the Gout in the Limbs; and TWELVE SHILLINGS and SIX PENCE Sterling, for the Phial which is for the Gout in the Head and Stomach.

 With the above came, a fine TINCTURE for Lowneſs of Spirits, ſtrengthening the Stomach, and reſtoring the Inſtruments of Digeſtion, impaired and weakened by long Illneſs.

To be SOLD by public Outcry,
At Mr. JOSEPH LEVY'S, near Charles-Town, on THURSDAY the 30*th Day of* June next,

ONE HUNDRED and FIFTY valuable NEGROES;—Among whom are thoſe of every Occupation for which a Planter can have Occaſion. Credit will be given for Eighteen Months, or to January 1ſt, 1773, with Intereſt and approved Security.

The Sale will begin preciſely at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon; but ſhould the Weather that Day prove bad, it will be poſtponed to the firſt good Day thereafter.

ALSO FOR SALE,

TWO TRACTS of LAND, adjoining each other, on Cheſaw Neck. They are bounded on the Eaſt by Aſhepoo River, on the Weſt by Cheſaw River, and on the North-Eaſt by Lands of James Skirving, Eſq. One Tract contains Six Hundred and Forty Acres, granted in the Year 1707; the other contains One Hundred and Twenty Acres. Both Tracts are well timbered with large Yellow Pine, and contain proper Land for Rice and Corn. For further Particulars, apply to ROBERT WELLS.

TWO good MILCH COWS, to be ſold. Inquire of JOHN JACKSON, jun.

To be SOLD at private Sale, the following TRACTS OF LAND, viz.

FIVE HUNDRED Acres, about 30 or 40 of which is good Tide-Swamp, the remainder Pine-Barren, well timbered, lying on the weſt ſide of Black-River, within 8 miles of George Town.

Six Hundred Acres of Pine-Barren, alſo on the ſame ſide of Black-River, and about 12 miles from George-Town.

One Thouſand Acres on Simpſon's Creek, one half of which is ſwamp, with ſome large Iſlands therein very fit for indico; the remaining half contains ſome good high land fit alſo for indico, and is well ſtock'd with timber and lightwood: This tract would do very well for two ſettlements, either for rice or indico, and is within 4 miles of a landing on Waccamaw-River.

Five Hundred Acres on Great-Pedee River, nearly the whole of which is good high ſwamp, a ſmall part being high land and convenient for buildings, &c. and about 35 miles from George-Town. The Pedee ſwamps are ſo well known to be fit for the culture of indico, that they need no encomiums.

Plats of any of the above lands may be ſeen in the hands of Doct. William Fyſſe in George-Town, to whom apply for particulars, or to me in Charles-Town.
